SELECTED WORK

AgabonabanyeFree · Learning platform

A welcoming community experience for free educational videos, useful conversations, and self-paced discovery.

Evava AI · Creative tools

An AI-assisted video workspace concept designed to make editing and sharing feel approachable.

CodeOwl · Coding companion

Interactive learning paths, small hands-on wins, and progress tracking for curious new developers.

BwengeAI · Learning assistant

A multilingual learning companion that helps turn difficult ideas into clear, practical explanations.

HOW I WORK

- Start with people and the problem, then keep the solution as simple as it can be.
- Build in small, testable steps and learn out loud along the way.
- Make technology feel useful, welcoming, and thoughtfully made.

CURRENT DIRECTION

Growing through hands-on projects in web development, AI, product design, and education. Open to thoughtful collaborations and opportunities to build things that help people.
